Hello all,

Thanks to Janice and Keith for submitting the current drafts as well as their notes on the ERC comment table!

Attached is an update on the status of the ERC comments. As you will see it is a colorful document (easier to keep track of the chemicals/people). Anyway, Keith's comments are in RED, Janice's in BLUE, and mine are in BLACK and BOLD.

If a comment was addressed for all relevant chemicals it was given a green highlight. Of course, these will have to be reviewed to make sure we are on target with the comment, but they have been addressed. Comments without any highlight are either partially addressed or awaiting significant review. Things in black have not yet been addressed.

By my count, we currently have

Deliberative Process / Ex. 5

Seems like we are making significant progress but have a ways to go. My hope is that Tuesday we will get additional comments completely addressed.

Also, the drafts attached to this e-mail have incorporated revisions from multiple people. Both Janice and Keith have noted which comments are included in the drafts.
